OUNTRY OR CATALOGUE A STATE OF THE STREET OF THE STREET OF THE STREET OF THE STATE OF THE STREET OF	- $	CLASSIFICATION CONFIDENTIAL 25
Installation in Motivate and Discharge in the Fall of 1954 22 Troops in Malacky and Indication and Discharge in the Fall of 1954 24 FRALUATION PHACE OBTAINED 25 ARTE OF CONTENT 25 ARTE OF CONTENT 25 ARTE OBTAINED 16 June 1955 25 ARGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 TYPE) 16 June 1955 26 27 28 EMARKS 17 This is UNEVALUATED Information 25×1 25×1	OUNTRY
PLACE OBTAINED PLACE OBTAINED PLACE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 16 June 1955 25 AGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 TYPE) EMARKS This is UNEVALUATED Information 25X1 2	OPIC
ALUATION PI ACE OBTAINED ATE OF CONTENT. ATE OSTAINED DATE PREPARED 16 June 1955 21 AGES 2 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) EMARKS This is UNEVALUATED Information 25X1 25X1. 25		2. Troops in Malacky and Induction and Discharge in the Fall of 1954
a tank unit and an infantry unit were also stationed at Stragico EMARKS [This is UNEVALUATED Information] 25X1	VALUATI	ON PLACE ORTAINED
a tank unit and an infantry unit were also stationed at Strapico EMARKS This is UNEVALUATED Information 25X1 2		25
a tank unit and an infantry unit were also stationed at Strapico 2. In late January 1955, border guard soldiers who were employed in the border area west of Rosteum (H 50/R 51), were reclined from border guard soldiers were employed in the border area west of Rosteum (H 50/R 51), were reclined from border guard severed marginared toward the interior of the country. Border guard soldiers were constantly quartered in Resteum Castle, in a three-stery building opposite the church in Hesteum. The unit included Liamber (fau) who was also in charge of the political control of the coup. 3. In early 1955, a military meter-vehicle repair shep was allegedly therefore the Relysev (Releischen, H 50/R 62) where an assumition depet was previously located. 4. Prior to early Nevember 1954, soldiers who were red spaulets were observed in the cantenment about 200 meters southeast of the Malacky (P 49/S 22) relired station. The unit, size of which was estimated at about 500 meny was eligible trucks and Skeda Tuder sedans, an undetermined number of arm vehicles, some towing two-wheeled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles which had a capacity of about 12 soldiers, had open tops. Might armered track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short-barreled gus without a muzelo brake were also observed. A feyrer convert in the merthwestery		16 June 1955
EMARKS This is UNEVALUATED Information 25X1 2
This is UNEVALUATED Information 25X1 25X
a tank unit and an infantry unit were also stationed at Stragice 2. In late January 1955, berder guard soldiers who were employed in the berder area west of Hostoum (N 50/P 61), were relieved from berder guard service and replaced by younger men. At that time, detachments of up to 40 men were observed marching toward the interior of the country, Border guard seldiers were constantly quartered in Hestoum Casile, in a three-story building on the contral square and in a twe-story building eppesite the church in Hestoum. The unit included Lienter (fau) who was also in charge of the political control of the coopy. 3. In early 1955, a military meter-vehicle repair shep was allegedly toward in Helysev (Heleischem, N 50/P 82) where an ammunition depet was previously located. 4. Prior to early Nevember 1954, soldiers who were red epaulets were observed in the cantenment about 200 meters southeast of the Malcoky (P 49/8 22) railroad station. The unit, size of which was estimated at about 500 mea,was of the case twing two-wheeled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles, sense terring two-wheeled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 soldiers, had open tope, lifet armoved track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short-barreled gus without a muzzle brake were also observed. A former gouvest in the merthewesterm.
a tank unit and an infantry unit were also stationed at Stragice 2. In late January 1955, berder guard seldiers who were employed in the berder area west of Hosteum (N 50/P 61), were relieved from berder guard service and replaced by younger men. At that time, detachments of up to 40 men were observed marching toward the interior of the country. Berder guard seldiers were constantly quartered in Hesteum Castle, in a three-stery building on the central square and in a two-stery building eppesite the church in Hesteum, he unit included Lindian (fruu) who was also in charge of the political control of the coop 3. In early 1955, a military meter-vehicle repair shep was allegedly toward in the cantenment about 200 meters southeast of the Malacky (P 49/S 82) railroad station. The unit, size of which was estimated at about 500 men, was entered trucks and Skeda Tudor sedams, in undetermined number of arm vehicles, sene towing two-wheeled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 seldiers, had open tops. Might armored truck-laying vehicles which had a revelving turret and a short-barroled gua without a muscle brake were also observed. A former governt in the merthwesterm	EMARKS
a tank unit and an infantry unit were also stationed at Stragice 2. In late January 1955, berder guard seldiers who were employed in the berder area west of Hosteum (N 50/P 61), were relieved from berder guard service and replaced by younger men. At that time, detachments of up to 40 men were observed marching toward the interior of the country. Berder guard seldiers were constantly quartered in Hesteum Castle, in a three-stery building on the central square and in a two-stery building eppesite the church in Hesteum, he unit included Lindian (fruu) who was also in charge of the political control of the coop 3. In early 1955, a military meter-vehicle repair shep was allegedly toward in the cantenment about 200 meters southeast of the Malacky (P 49/S 82) railroad station. The unit, size of which was estimated at about 500 men, was entered trucks and Skeda Tudor sedams, in undetermined number of arm vehicles, sene towing two-wheeled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 seldiers, had open tops. Might armored truck-laying vehicles which had a revelving turret and a short-barroled gua without a muscle brake were also observed. A former governt in the merthwesterm		This is UNEVALUATED Information
2. In late January 1955, berder guard soldiers who were employed in the berder area west of Hosteum (N 50/P 61), were relieved from berder guard service and replaced by younger men. At that time, detachments of up to 40 men were observed marching toward the interior of the country. Berder guard soldiers were constantly quartered in Hosteum Castle, in a three-stery building on the central square and in a two-stery building opposite the church in Hosteum. He unit included Lieuters (fau) who was also in charge of the political control of the coop. 3. In early 1955, a military meter-vehicle repair shop was allegedly toward in Holysev (Holoischen, N 50/P 82) where an ammunition depet was previously located. 4. Prior to early Nevember 1954, soldiers who were red epaulots were observed in the cantenment about 200 meters southeast of the Malacky (P 49/R 82) railroad station. The unit, size of which was estimated at about 500 men, was extended at trucks and Skeda Tuder sedans. An undetermined number of arm vehicles, some towing two-whooled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 soldiers, had open tops. Lifet armored track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short-barreled gun without a muzzle brake were also observed. A former convent in the northwestern
2. In late January 1955, berder guard soldiers who were employed in the berder area west of Hosteum (N 50/P 61), were relieved from berder guard service and replaced by younger men. At that time, detachments of up to 40 men were observed marching toward the interior of the country. Berder guard soldiers were constantly quartered in Hosteum Castle, in a three-stery building on the central square and in a two-stery building opposite the church in Hosteum. He unit included Lieuters (fau) who was also in charge of the political control of the coop. 3. In early 1955, a military meter-vehicle repair shop was allegedly toward in Holysev (Holoischen, N 50/P 82) where an ammunition depet was previously located. 4. Prior to early Nevember 1954, soldiers who were red epaulots were observed in the cantenment about 200 meters southeast of the Malacky (P 49/R 82) railroad station. The unit, size of which was estimated at about 500 men, was extended at trucks and Skeda Tuder sedans. An undetermined number of arm vehicles, some towing two-whooled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 soldiers, had open tops. Lifet armored track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short-barreled gun without a muzzle brake were also observed. A former convent in the northwestern
2. In late January 1955, berder guard soldiers who were employed in the berder area west of Hosteum (N 50/P 61), were relieved from berder guard service and replaced by younger men. At that time, detachments of up to 40 men were observed marching toward the interior of the country. Berder guard soldiers were constantly quartered in Hosteum Castle, in a three-stery building on the central square and in a two-stery building opposite the church in Hosteum. He unit included Lieuters (fau) who was also in charge of the political control of the coop. 3. In early 1955, a military meter-vehicle repair shop was allegedly toward in Holysev (Holoischen, N 50/P 82) where an ammunition depet was previously located. 4. Prior to early Nevember 1954, soldiers who were red epaulots were observed in the cantenment about 200 meters southeast of the Malacky (P 49/R 82) railroad station. The unit, size of which was estimated at about 500 men, was extended at trucks and Skeda Tuder sedans. An undetermined number of arm vehicles, some towing two-whooled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 soldiers, had open tops. Lifet armored track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short-barreled gun without a muzzle brake were also observed. A former convent in the northwestern
2. In late January 1955, berder guard soldiers who were employed in the berder area west of Hosteum (N 50/P 61), were relieved from berder guard service and replaced by younger men. At that time, detachments of up to 40 men were observed marching toward the interior of the country. Berder guard soldiers were constantly quartered in Hosteum Castle, in a three-stery building on the central square and in a two-stery building opposite the church in Hosteum. He unit included Lieuters (fau) who was also in charge of the political control of the coop. 3. In early 1955, a military meter-vehicle repair shop was allegedly toward in Holysev (Holoischen, N 50/P 82) where an ammunition depet was previously located. 4. Prior to early Nevember 1954, soldiers who were red epaulots were observed in the cantenment about 200 meters southeast of the Malacky (P 49/R 82) railroad station. The unit, size of which was estimated at about 500 men, was extended at trucks and Skeda Tuder sedans. An undetermined number of arm vehicles, some towing two-whooled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 soldiers, had open tops. Lifet armored track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short-barreled gun without a muzzle brake were also observed. A former convent in the northwestern
2. In late January 1955, berder guard soldiers who were employed in the berder area west of Hosteum (N 50/P 61), were relieved from berder guard service and replaced by younger men. At that time, detachments of up to 40 men were observed marching toward the interior of the country. Berder guard soldiers were constantly quartered in Hosteum Castle, in a three-stery building on the central square and in a two-stery building opposite the church in Hosteum. He unit included Lieuters (fau) who was also in charge of the political control of the coop. 3. In early 1955, a military meter-vehicle repair shop was allegedly toward in Holysev (Holoischen, N 50/P 82) where an ammunition depet was previously located. 4. Prior to early Nevember 1954, soldiers who were red epaulots were observed in the cantenment about 200 meters southeast of the Malacky (P 49/R 82) railroad station. The unit, size of which was estimated at about 500 men, was extended at trucks and Skeda Tuder sedans. An undetermined number of arm vehicles, some towing two-whooled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 soldiers, had open tops. Lifet armored track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short-barreled gun without a muzzle brake were also observed. A former convent in the northwestern
2. In late January 1955, berder guard soldiers who were employed in the berder area west of Hosteum (N 50/P 61), were relieved from berder guard service and replaced by younger men. At that time, detachments of up to 40 men were observed marching toward the interior of the country. Berder guard soldiers were constantly quartered in Hosteum Castle, in a three-stery building on the central square and in a two-stery building opposite the church in Hosteum. He unit included Lieuters (fau) who was also in charge of the political control of the coop. 3. In early 1955, a military meter-vehicle repair shop was allegedly toward in Holysev (Holoischen, N 50/P 82) where an ammunition depet was previously located. 4. Prior to early Nevember 1954, soldiers who were red epaulots were observed in the cantenment about 200 meters southeast of the Malacky (P 49/R 82) railroad station. The unit, size of which was estimated at about 500 men, was extended at trucks and Skeda Tuder sedans. An undetermined number of arm vehicles, some towing two-whooled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 soldiers, had open tops. Lifet armored track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short-barreled gun without a muzzle brake were also observed. A former convent in the northwestern
2. In late January 1955, berder guard soldiers who were employed in the berder area west of Hosteum (N 50/P 61), were relieved from berder guard service and replaced by younger men. At that time, detachments of up to 40 men were observed marching toward the interior of the country. Berder guard soldiers were constantly quartered in Hosteum Castle, in a three-stery building on the central square and in a two-stery building opposite the church in Hosteum. He unit included Lieuters (fau) who was also in charge of the political control of the coop. 3. In early 1955, a military meter-vehicle repair shop was allegedly toward in Holysev (Holoischen, N 50/P 82) where an ammunition depet was previously located. 4. Prior to early Nevember 1954, soldiers who were red epaulots were observed in the cantenment about 200 meters southeast of the Malacky (P 49/R 82) railroad station. The unit, size of which was estimated at about 500 men, was extended at trucks and Skeda Tuder sedans. An undetermined number of arm vehicles, some towing two-whooled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 soldiers, had open tops. Lifet armored track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short-barreled gun without a muzzle brake were also observed. A former convent in the northwestern
2. In late January 1955, berder guard soldiers who were employed in the berder area west of Hosteum (N 50/P 61), were relieved from berder guard service and replaced by younger men. At that time, detachments of up to 40 men were observed marching toward the interior of the country. Berder guard soldiers were constantly quartered in Hosteum Castle, in a three-stery building on the central square and in a two-stery building opposite the church in Hosteum. He unit included Lieuters (fau) who was also in charge of the political control of the coop. 3. In early 1955, a military meter-vehicle repair shop was allegedly toward in Holysev (Holoischen, N 50/P 82) where an ammunition depet was previously located. 4. Prior to early Nevember 1954, soldiers who were red epaulots were observed in the cantenment about 200 meters southeast of the Malacky (P 49/R 82) railroad station. The unit, size of which was estimated at about 500 men, was extended at trucks and Skeda Tuder sedans. An undetermined number of arm vehicles, some towing two-whooled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 soldiers, had open tops. Lifet armored track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short-barreled gun without a muzzle brake were also observed. A former convent in the northwestern
2. In late January 1955, berder guard soldiers who were employed in the berder area west of Hosteum (N 50/P 61), were relieved from berder guard service and replaced by younger men. At that time, detachments of up to 40 men were observed marching toward the interior of the country. Berder guard soldiers were constantly quartered in Hosteum Castle, in a three-stery building on the central square and in a two-stery building opposite the church in Hosteum. He unit included Lieuters (fau) who was also in charge of the political control of the coop. 3. In early 1955, a military meter-vehicle repair shop was allegedly toward in Holysev (Holoischen, N 50/P 82) where an ammunition depet was previously located. 4. Prior to early Nevember 1954, soldiers who were red epaulots were observed in the cantenment about 200 meters southeast of the Malacky (P 49/R 82) railroad station. The unit, size of which was estimated at about 500 men, was extended at trucks and Skeda Tuder sedans. An undetermined number of arm vehicles, some towing two-whooled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 soldiers, had open tops. Lifet armored track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short-barreled gun without a muzzle brake were also observed. A former convent in the northwestern
2. In late January 1955, berder guard soldiers who were employed in the berder area west of Hosteum (N 50/P 61), were relieved from berder guard service and replaced by younger men. At that time, detachments of up to 40 men were observed marching toward the interior of the country. Berder guard soldiers were constantly quartered in Hosteum Castle, in a three-stery building on the central square and in a two-stery building opposite the church in Hosteum. He unit included Lieuters (fau) who was also in charge of the political control of the coop. 3. In early 1955, a military meter-vehicle repair shop was allegedly toward in Holysev (Holoischen, N 50/P 82) where an ammunition depet was previously located. 4. Prior to early Nevember 1954, soldiers who were red epaulots were observed in the cantenment about 200 meters southeast of the Malacky (P 49/R 82) railroad station. The unit, size of which was estimated at about 500 men, was extended at trucks and Skeda Tuder sedans. An undetermined number of arm vehicles, some towing two-whooled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 soldiers, had open tops. Lifet armored track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short-barreled gun without a muzzle brake were also observed. A former convent in the northwestern
2. In late January 1955, berder guard soldiers who were employed in the berder area west of Hosteum (N 50/P 61), were relieved from berder guard service and replaced by younger men. At that time, detachments of up to 40 men were observed marching toward the interior of the country. Berder guard soldiers were constantly quartered in Hosteum Castle, in a three-stery building on the central square and in a two-stery building opposite the church in Hosteum. He unit included Lieuters (fau) who was also in charge of the political control of the coop. 3. In early 1955, a military meter-vehicle repair shop was allegedly toward in Holysev (Holoischen, N 50/P 82) where an ammunition depet was previously located. 4. Prior to early Nevember 1954, soldiers who were red epaulots were observed in the cantenment about 200 meters southeast of the Malacky (P 49/R 82) railroad station. The unit, size of which was estimated at about 500 men, was extended at trucks and Skeda Tuder sedans. An undetermined number of arm vehicles, some towing two-whooled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 soldiers, had open tops. Lifet armored track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short-barreled gun without a muzzle brake were also observed. A former convent in the northwestern
2. In late January 1955, berder guard soldiers who were employed in the berder area west of Hosteum (N 50/P 61), were relieved from berder guard service and replaced by younger men. At that time, detachments of up to 40 men were observed marching toward the interior of the country. Berder guard soldiers were constantly quartered in Hosteum Castle, in a three-stery building on the central square and in a two-stery building opposite the church in Hosteum. He unit included Lieuters (fau) who was also in charge of the political control of the coop. 3. In early 1955, a military meter-vehicle repair shop was allegedly toward in Holysev (Holoischen, N 50/P 82) where an ammunition depet was previously located. 4. Prior to early Nevember 1954, soldiers who were red epaulots were observed in the cantenment about 200 meters southeast of the Malacky (P 49/R 82) railroad station. The unit, size of which was estimated at about 500 men, was extended at trucks and Skeda Tuder sedans. An undetermined number of arm vehicles, some towing two-whooled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 soldiers, had open tops. Lifet armored track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short-barreled gun without a muzzle brake were also observed. A former convent in the northwestern		a tank unit and an infantry unit were also stationed at Stragice west of Hostoum (N 50/P 61), were relieved from border guard service and replaced by younger men. At that time, detachments of up to 40 men were observed marching toward the interior of the country. Border guard seldiers were constantly quartered in Hostoum Castle, in a three-stery building on the central square and in a twe-stery building opposite the church in Hostoum. The unit included Lieutest (fmu) who was also in charge of the political control of the coop. 5. In early 1955, a military meter-vehicle repair shop was allegedly toutest in Holysov (Holeischen, N 50/P 82) where an ammunition depet was previously located. 4. Prior to early Nevember 1954, seldiers who were red epaulots were observed in the cantenment about 200 meters southeast of the Malacky (P 49/S 82) railroad station. The unit, size of which was estimated at about 500 men, was entrucks and Skoda Tudor sedans. An undetermined number of arm vehicles, some towing two-wheeled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 seldiers, had open tops. Lifet armored track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short-barreled gun without a muzzle brake were also observed. A former convent in the northwestern		• by younger men. At that time, detachments of up to 40 men were observed marching toward the interior of the country. Border guard soldiers were constantly quartered in Hostoun Castle, in a three-story building on the central square and in a two-story building opposite the church in Hostoun. The unit included Lieuter (fmu) who was also in charge of the political control of the coop. 3. In early 1955, a military meter-wehicle repair shop was allegedly control in Holysov (Holoischen, N 50/P 82) where an ammunition depot was previously located. 4. Prior to early November 1954, soldiers who were red epaulots were observed in the cantonment about 200 meters southeast of the Malacky (P 49/S 82) railroad station. The unit, size of which was estimated at about 500 men, was controlled trucks and Skoda Tuder sedans. An undetermined number of arm vehicles, some towing two-whoeled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 soldiers, had open tops. Fight armored track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short-barreled gun without a muzzle brake were also observed. A former convent in the northwesterm.	2.	In late January 1955, berder guard seldiers who were employed in the border area west of Hostons (N 50/P 61), were relieved from border guard service and replaced toward the interior of the country. Berder guard seldiers were constantly quartered in Hesteun Castle, in a three-stery building on the central square and in a twe-stery building opposite the church in Hesteun. The unit included Lieuter (fmu) who was also in charge of the political control of the cooperation (fmu) who was also in charge of the political control of the cooperation. In early 1955, a military meter-vehicle repair shop was allegedly footest in Helysev (Heleischen, N 50/P 82) where an ammunition depot was previously located. Prior to early Nevember 1954, soldiers who were red epaulots were observed in the cantenment about 200 meters southeast of the Malacky (P 49/S 82) railread station. The unit, size of which was estimated at about 500 men, was extracted at about 500 men, was extracted at about 500 men, was extracted trucks and Skeda Tuder sedans. An undetermined number of arm vehicles, some towing twe-whoeled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 seldiers, had open tops. Light armoved track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short-barreled gun without a muszle brake were also observed. A former convent in the northwesterm		by younger non. At that time, detachments of up to 40 non were observed marching story building opposite the church in Hesteun. The unit included Lienter (fnu) who was also in charge of the political control of the cooperation. 3. In early 1955, a military meter-vehicle repair shop was allegedly control in Helysev (Holoischen, N 50/P 82) where an ammunition depet was previously located. 4. Prior to early Nevember 1954, soldiers who were red epaulets were observed in the cantenment about 200 meters southeast of the Malacky (P 49/S 82) railroad station. The unit, size of which was estimated at about 500 men, was extracted at about 500 men, was extracted and Skeda Tudor sedans. An undetermined number of arm vehicles, some towing two-whooled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 soldiers, had open tops. Light armored track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short-barroled gun without a muzzle brake were also observed. A former convent in the northwestern		toward the interior of the country. Border guard seldiers were constantly quartered
(fau) whe was also in charge of the political control of the coop. 3. In early 1955, a military meter-vehicle repair shep was allegedly forced in Helysev (Heleischen, N 50/P 82) where an ammunition depet was previously located. 4. Prior to early Nevember 1954, soldiers who were red epaulets were observed in the cantenment about 200 meters southeast of the Malacky (P 49/S 82) railroad station. The unit, size of which was estimated at about 500 men, was extracted at about 500 men, was extracted at trucks and Skeda Tudor sedans. An undetermined number of arm vehicles, some towing two-wheeled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 soldiers, had open tops. Lifet armored track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short-barreled gun without a muzzle brake were also observed. A former convent in the northwestern		in Hesteun Castle, in a three-stery building on the central square and in a two-
Helysev (Heleischen, N 50/P 82) where an ammunition depet was previously located. 4. Prior to early Nevember 1954, soldiers who were red epaulets were observed in the cantenment about 200 meters southeast of the Malacky (P 49/S 82) railroad station. The unit, size of which was estimated at about 500 men, was estimated at arrow trucks and Skeda Tuder sedans. An undetermined number of arm vehicles, some towing two-wheeled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 soldiers, had open tops. Light armored track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short-barreled gun without a muzzle brake were also observed. A former convent in the northwestern		(fru) who was also in charge of the political control of the coop
Helysev (Heleischen, N 50/P 82) where an ammunition depet was previously located. 4. Prior to early Nevember 1954, soldiers who were red epaulets were observed in the cantenment about 200 meters southeast of the Malacky (P 49/S 82) railroad station. The unit, size of which was estimated at about 500 men, was estimated at arrow trucks and Skeda Tuder sedans. An undetermined number of arm vehicles, some towing two-wheeled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 soldiers, had open tops. Light armored track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short-barreled gun without a muzzle brake were also observed. A former convent in the northwestern	3.	In early 1955, a military meter-wehicle repair shep was allegedly full in cantenment about 200 meters southeast of the Halacky (P 49/8 82) railread station. The unit, size of which was estimated at about 500 men, was extended trucks and Skeda Tuder sedans. An undetermined number of arm vehicles, some towing two-wheeled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 seldiers, had open tops. Lifet armored track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short-barreled gun without a muzzle brake were also observed. A former convent in the northwestern		Helysev (Heleischen, N 50/P 82) where an ammunition depet was previously locatedo
The unit, size of which was estimated at about 500 men, was estimated RN trucks and Skeda Tudor sedans. An undetermined number of armount to the sedans of t	4.
trucks and Skeda Tuder sedans. An undetermined number of armoved the vehicles, sene tewing two-wheeled trailers, was also observed the sedant section. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 seldiers, had epen tops. Light armored track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short-barreled gun without a muzzle brake were also observed. A former convent in the northwestern vehicles, some towing two-wheeled trailers, was also observed. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 seldiers, had open tops. Light armored track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short-barreled gun without a muzzle brake were also observed. A former convent in the northwestern armored track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short-barreled gun without a muzzle brake were also observed. A fermer convent in the northwestern		vehicles, seme tewing twe-wheeled trailers, was also observed.
gun without a muzzle brake were also observed. A fermer convent in the northwestern		These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 soldiers, had open tops. Light sector of malacky was occupied by about 100 PS seldiers. 20
3
		sector of malacky was occupied by about 100 PS soldiers.
	•	sector of malacky was occupied by about 100 PS soldiers.
	•	sector of malacky was occupied by about 100 PS soldiers.
		sector of malacky was occupied by about 100 PS soldiers.

CONFIDEN	TIA
	⇒ 2 s
Comment	The exchange of	personnel wi	thin the bord	er guard troops ports on the	ected at about the German border sit	ns time and l mation.	as alse been	mentioned in ters southons	A previous reper it of the Malacky	railread at.	tion is secur	led by sempenent lts of the 9t possibly co	h Inf Div and commponent units of the ll	pement units the tank SP :	of a tank _a un comment. Wal	t. The latter
Conment.	The dates of ind			we to normal
ndards				722 00 20122
1

25X1

CONFIDENTIAL

	CLASSIFICATION CONFIDENTIAL	2
COUNTRY	LE CLASS TICK TO THE SKETT OF BORDER SEC.	2
OPIC	1. Artillery Unit in Strasice, PS Troops in Hestenn and Military Installation in Helysov 2. Troops in Halacky and Induction and Discharge in the Fall of 1954
VALUATI		ILLE
ATE OF		-
ATE OB
EFEREN
AGES EMARKS
LMAKKS

	This is UNEVALUATED Information	_25 X 1_
2 &
	west of Hestoun (N 50/P 61), were relieved from border guard service and replay younger men. At that time, detachments of up to 40 men were observed march toward the interior of the country. Border guard soldiers were constantly quain Hostoun Castle, in a three-story building on the central square and in a tastory building epposite the church in Hostoun. The unit included Lieutenant Mostour.	uced ing rtered wo- usil
3 a	west of Hestoun (N 50/P 61), were relieved from border guard service and replay younger men. At that time, detachments of up to 40 men were observed marchitectural the interior of the country. Border guard soldiers were constantly quain Hostoun Castle, in a three-story building enable central square and in a tractory building epposite the church in Hostoun. The unit included Lieutenant Marchitecture and the church in Hostoun.	uced ing rtered wo- usil arms ,l
	west of Hestoun (N 50/P 61), were relieved from border guard service and replay younger men. At that time, detechments of up to 40 men were observed marchitoward the interior of the country. Border guard soldiers were constantly quain Hostoun Castle, in a three-story building on the central square and in a tractory building epposite the church in Hostoun. The unit included Lieutenant M (fnu) who was also in charge of the political control of the cooperative. In early 1955, a military motor-vehicle repair shop was allegedly located in	uced ing rtered wo- usil arms,1 ted c the tion, a RN
	west of Hestoun (N 50/P 61), were relieved from border guard service and replay younger men. At that time, detachments of up to 40 men were observed marchined the interior of the country. Border guard soldiers were constantly quartic Hostoun Castle, in a three-story building enable central square and in a tractory building exposite the church in Hostoun. The unit included Lieutenant Marchined was also in charge of the political control of the cooperative. In early 1955, a military motor-vehicle repair shop was allegedly located in Holysov (Holeischem, N 50/P 82) where an ammunition depot was previously located in cantonment about 200 meters southeast of the Kalacky (P 49/S 82) railroad statement about 200 meters southeast of the Kalacky (P 49/S 82) railroad statement, size of which was estimated at about 500 men, was equipped with Pragmetrucks and Skoda Tudor sedans. An undetermined number of armored track-laying vehicles, some towing two-wheeled trailers, was also observed at these billet. These vehicles, which had a capacity of about 12 soldiers, had open tops. Light armored track-laying vehicles which had a revolving turret and a short barrelegun without a muzzle brake were also observed. A former convent in the northwent.	uced ing rtered wo- usil arms,1 ted c the tion, a RN

CONFIDENTIAL

25X1